

LYNBERG & WATKINS

PATRICIA A. LYNCH

Partner | plynch@lynberg.com | 714.937.1010

PRACTICE AREAS:

Personal Injury
Sexual Abuse and Molestation
Education Law
Civil Rights Litigation
Construction Defects

EDUCATION:

University of California, Santa Barbara (B.A. 1977)
Mc George School of Law, University of the Pacific (J.D., 1981)

BAR ADMISSIONS:

State Bar of California, 1981
United States Court of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit
United States District Court for the Central District of California
United States District Court for the Southern District of California
United States District Court for the Eastern District of California
United States District Court for the Northern District of California

EXPERIENCE:

Pat Lynch received her B.A. in Political Science from the University of Santa Barbara in 1977 and her Juris Doctor from Mc George School of Law, University of the Pacific in 1981. In December, 1981, she was admitted to the California Bar. She is also admitted to the United States District Courts for the Central District, Eastern District, Southern District, and Northern District of California and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Pat recently became a partner at Lynberg & Watkins after spending over 20 years defending charter schools and public entities in actions involving childhood sexual abuse, molestation, civil rights, personal injury, dangerous conditions of public property, and employment law. Her legal career began in insurance defense. Early on she had a solo practice consisting of civil litigation and criminal law while serving as house counsel to a commercial building contractor. She has a published opinion before the Second Appellate District for the State of California.

