

LYNBERG & WATKINS

MATTHEW J. LIPPOLD

Associate Attorney | mlippold@lynberg.com | 714.937.1010

PRACTICE AREAS:

Civil Rights
General Torts
Labor and Employment
Police Liability Defense
Public Entity Defense

EDUCATION:

University of California, Los Angeles (B.A. 2018)
University of Southern California, Gould School of Law (J.D. 2021)

HONOR SOCIETIES:

UCLA magna cum laude graduate
Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society

SCHOLARSHIPS:

Dr. Rodolfo Montes Memorial Scholar, Saks Institute for Law, Mental Health, and Ethics Scholar

BAR ADMISSIONS:

State of California Bar

SEMINARS:

Participated in a public policy seminar regarding the issue of veteran deportation in the spring of 2020, leading to national changes in policy.

EXPERIENCE:

Matthew joined Lynberg & Watkins at the beginning of 2023, assisting with the general civil litigation practice, including the defense of public entities on a wide range of matters: from employment, civil rights, police liability, to general tort liability. He is known for thorough attention to detail and a competitive drive. Matthew is a dedicated and committed advocate both on paper and in the courtroom, and he is admitted to practice law in the State of California and the Southern and Central District Courts.

He obtained his bachelor's degree in English from University of California, Los Angeles, achieving magna cum laude recognition in only 3 years. Next, Matthew earned his juris doctorate from

LYNBERG WATKINS

University of Southern California, Gould School of Law, graduating and passing the bar exam amidst a global pandemic.

In his spare time, Matthew enjoys reading fiction, basketball, gardening, board games, and hiking.