

uscprelawwccc

Olivia Dean · Lady Lady

USC PRE-LAW
WCCC

5:30 PM to 6:30 PM
March 16th

RSVP
Form:

Resilient Stories

A VIRTUAL PANEL

Join our panel of distinguished legal leaders to discover how unconventional journeys, career pivots, and diverse backgrounds can lead to extraordinary success in the law.

TIA RAMIREZ, CHIEF DEPUTY CITY ATTORNEY

Superior Court candidate and former Administrative Law Judge with extensive experience leading specialized units in domestic violence and gun violence prevention.

HON. SHERRY
THOMPSON-TAYLOR, SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE

Former Division Chief transitioning from Tribal Law and high-stakes prosecution to the judiciary. A trailblazer and community leader, she has managed multi-million dollar legal divisions.

AMY MARGOLIES, LYNBERG & WATKINS

Partner at Lynberg & Watkins, practices Civil Rights and Employment Defense law. Focused on complex cases involving police liability and constitutional claims.

JASMIN DIVAS, 3L AT CALIFORNIA WESTERN

First-generation 3L student and resilient advocate for immigrant and Indigenous rights dedicated to uplifting underserved communities and advancing equity within the legal system.

View insights

Boost post